

A place where the arts and history are celebrated, wonderful new shops make their debut and the cool vibe is complemented by the warm hospitality. Downtown Langley is that place.

Downtown Langley—great things happen here.

We love our downtown and we want you to love it too. Whether you're visiting on a vacation, here for a conference or cultural event, or taking advantage of our fabulous shopping, you'll soon discover that downtown Langley City has a one-of-a-kind ambience that will entice you and tempt you to stay longer. We want you to get to know our downtown like we do, and we strive to ensure you enjoy all we have to offer.

Downtown awaits you.

Suite 201 - 20559 Fraser Hwy
Langley, BC
V3A 4G3 Canada

P 604 539 0133
F 604 539 0137
E info@downtownlangley.com

www.downtownlangley.com

Experience a world of taste in Downtown Langley, where variety is the spice of life.

Our seventy + food establishments will provide you with a diverse culinary experience sure to please every palate. Foods from places around the globe are yours to savour, thanks to our many ethnic inspired eateries. For some people, sushi is a craving that must be catered to on a regular basis. For others it's the spicy warmth of Thai food that brings comfort. Whether you want to feast at your own Mexican fiesta, tuck into some satisfying Chinese food, pick up a pizza or enjoy your favourite fish and chips, our restaurants have the tastes you want. From Greek to Vietnamese, Indian to British and everything in between, if there's a flavor you crave you'll find it here.

Exclusive brand names, music, books, art, home decor and more... discover it all Downtown.

Our pedestrian-oriented shopping area features free parking, and includes historic Innes Corners and trendy McBurney Lane.

As you enjoy a leisurely stroll through this remarkable area, you'll find handmade BC giftware, linens, unique housewares and furniture, custom jewelry and a variety of other interesting items that you just can't find anywhere else.

We have over 40 countries represented in our exclusive home décor stores, so plan to visit a vast array of cultures while you're here.

You deserve to indulge.

A little pampering is good for the spirit, so make a point of spoiling yourself with a massage or some other soul-soothing treatment while you are here. We have dozens of spas, salons and wellness stores to choose from and they are all here to make you look and feel your absolute best.

The cuisine, the service, the wonderful atmosphere; we have everything you need.

Get a good night's sleep, we have more in store for you tomorrow.

Rest and relax while you're here.

Visitors to our downtown can enjoy the convenience and luxury of staying at a number of hotels located in the heart of our City. Once you are settled in, take an afternoon stroll through beautiful Douglas Park or relax and enjoy the soothing water feature at Innes Corners.

Entertainment is what we are all about. You name it, we have it.

Our parades, musical events, art festivals and community celebrations happen because we want to provide free, family fun for everyone. We want to welcome one and all to this special place... So please spend a day in Douglas Park watching talented musicians, experience Arts Alive and its wonderful array of visual and performing artists or come join the thousands that cheer on our Community Day and Christmas Parades. But it doesn't stop there—we also offer spectacular live evening entertainment at our Cascades Casino show lounge.